THE ANNUAL CONCERT.

A Fitting Finale to a Most Successful Commencement.

The annual concert by those in the department of music of Greensboro Female College, which completes the commencement exercises for the collegiate year, was given last night in the college chapel. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity and many who did not have on the wedding garment (in this case a ticket) were turned away and departed into outer darkness.

The decorations of the chapel, as we mentioned before, were the prettiest, daintiest and most unique we have seen at any college commencement. The national colors were used and with the numerous flags and tri-colored bunting were enough to stir the patriotism of every one in the audience.

The exercises were opened with prayer led by the Rev. F. H. Wood, D. D,, presiding elder of the Winston district. The following programme was admirably rendered:

Quartet—Overture to Nabuccodonosor—Verdi. Misses Nora Hamlin, Della Walker, Myrtle Chatham, and Cora Fields.

Recitation—Enoch Arden.
Miss Nellie Merrimom.

Duet—Valse de Concert—Mattei. Misses Minnie Gorrell and Minnie Geddie.

Song—The Tempest—Buck.
Miss Nanie Currie.

Duo—Two Pianos, Opus 25—Mendelssohn. Misses Elma Cole and Maude England.

Recitation—Marriage of the Flowers.
Miss Lizzie Leigh Dick.

Trio—Rest Thou on This Mossy Pillow—Smart. Misses Nanie Currie, Anna Henderson, and Mary Cole.

Recitation — Letter-Writing Scene From Pickwick Papers—Dickens. Miss Virginia Westbrook.

Chorus—The Lord is My Shepherd—Schubert.

Quartet—Overture to Tannhauser—Wagner. Misses Weathersbee, Bowden, England, and Elma Cole.

Quartet—Way Down Upon the Sewanee River—Foster. Misses Gorrell, Weathersbee, Wynne and Black.

All of the instrumental and vocal selections on the program were exquisitely rendered and the young ladies deserve much credit for the skill and the artistic execution of the instrumental selections, while the vocal solo, trio and quartet deserve especial mention.

Miss Nellie Merrimons recitation of Enoch Arden was perfect and Miss Lizzie Leigh Dick was graceful and charming in her recital of the Marriage of the Flowers.

Miss Virginia Westbrook captured the audience with her laughable rendering of the Letter Writing Scene from Pickwick Papers. She was repeatedly encored but the lateness of the hour deprived those present of an additional enjoyment.

After singing of the doxology the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. John N. Cole, of Durham, and brought to a close one of the most successful and enjoyable commencements in the history of this old institution of learning.

Painful Injury.

Little Neal Ivey, son of Rev. Dr. T. N. Ivey, was playing about the yard this morning and jumped with one bare foot upon the upturned tines of a rake which was lying in the grass, one of which pierced through his foot. This kind of wound is exceedingly painful, indeed, it is quite dangerous, as lockjaw is liable to take place from it. We hope that little Neal may speedily recover from the unfortunate accident.

Leaving for Vacation.

Each train leaving the city this morning was loaded with its share of school girls. Greensboro reluctantly gives up her girl students and wishes each of them a pleasant, happy, and joyous vacation and will open wide her gates and extend to them a most hearty welcome upon their return in the fall to resume their work in the college.

NOTHING FROM OUR FLEETS

A Quiet Day in Administration Circles.

BALTIMORE WAS NOT DISABLED.

Cable at Cienfuegos Still Broken--Grant and Greene Brigadiers--Sampson Makes His Report.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 27—When the cabinet convened today it was without any important official dispatches throwing light upon the situation. Throughout the day a throng of public men were in consultation with the president regarding war appointments.

The president said he had no new advices from the front in Cuban or Philippine waters. Secretary Long said there was no confirmation of the report that the Spanish fleet, under Admiral Cervera, was "bottled up" in the Santiago de Cuba harbor, and that Commodore Schley is lying in wait at the entrance to the harbor.

The secretary added, however, that while there was no official report that such is the case there is on the other hand no reason to doubt the accuracy of the statement beyond the fact that several days have passed since the report was first made and that it has not yet been officially confirmed.

MILES COMES SOUTH.

Washington, May 27—President McKinley, Secretary Alger and General Miles and staff will visit Camp Alger tomorrow. General Miles will start to Tampa tomorrow night.

TO DESTROY CERVERA'S FLEET.

Washington, May 27—The stories circulated that the Baltimore had been disabled by an internal explosion have been officially denied. Among the suggestions received today at the navy department is a novel one for the destruction of Admiral Cervera's fleet at Santiago de Cuba. It is suggested that the government send a dozen oil laden ships into the harbor when the tide is flowing in and then be thrown overboard and set on fire. The burning oil will float over the bay and will destroy all the vessels inside the harbor. The report that the cables Cienfuegos, which were cut by the Nashville and Marblehead sometime ago, have been repaired is discredited.

MUST GO TOGETHER.

Washington, May 27—Secretary Lodge today offered the Newland resolution for the annexation of Hawaii as an amendment to the war revenue bill. Senatorial annexationists declare that henceforth these measures must travel together.

APPOINTED BRIGADIERS.

Washington, May 27—The president this afternoon nominated Colonel Fred Grant and Francis V. Greene to be brigadier generals in the volunteer army.

THE OFFICIAL BULLETINS.

Washington, May 27—The navy department today officially bulletins Admiral Sampson's report of the bombardment of Santiago de Cuba several days ago. The attack began at daybreak and lasted for three hours. It was intended only to ascertain the strength of the forts and location of the defences. This information being obtained Sampson withdrew westward. One man was killed and seven wonnded.

BRITISH VESSEL DETAINED.

Kingston, Jamaica, May 27—The British steamer Adula, which went to Cuba to bring away refugees, has been detained at Cienfuegos by the Americans. It is reported that the officers have been made prisoners.

FRANCE PREPARING.

Paris, May 27—The Matin, in its today's issue, says the ministers of war and marine have received directions for the organization of national defenses with a view to being prepared for any eventualities or complications which may arise from the war between America and Spain.

NEWS FROM CHICKAMAUGA.

Chattanooga, May 27—The volunteer army at Chickamauga now numbers forty-five thousand and is continually increasing. Today's arrivals include Sixty-ninth New York, First Arkansas, Fifth Missouri and Fourth Ohio regiments and three troops of the third volunteer cavalry. The soldiers are practically incapacitated for service because of sore arms as a result of vaccination. All drill practice has been suspended for a few days. The Pennsylvania soldiers will be paid by the state for time spent in camp before being mustered in.

SHARP SHOOTERS ACCEPTED.

New York, May 27—The government this morning formally notified the famous German sharp shooters at Williamsburg that the offer of their services had been accepted. The company is two hundred strong.

JUST SO.

Key West, May 27—The belief is growing here that Admiral Cervera and the Spanish fleet left Santiago last Saturday.

THREE YELLOW FUNNELS.

Key West, May 27—Three yellow funnelled warships have been reported sighted off Sandy Key. A light small squadron has left to meet them.

COLLECTING AGENCY.

Under the Control and Management of James W. Forbis.

Having assumed the control and management of the Greensboro Mercantive Collecting Agency, I solicit collections from all the merchants and business men of our city.

I promise prompt personal attention to all collecting entrusted me.

I wish to state to the public that I am going to make a business of collecting for all merchants, who will favor me with their accounts. I will make weekly remittances, or even daily, when the amount collected is sufficient to justify it.

A number of the leading merchants have already promised me their collections, both good and bad and when they do this I will collect all that can possibly be collected for the very low rate of 3 per cent. When I collect at this rate, I expect the merchants to give me all their accounts, good and and bad, same as they would give one of their clerks upon starting him out to make their monthly collections. And I will state to the public, for the merchants, that no offence is intended, or reflection made by them giving me their accounts for collection, more than if the merchants were to send them out by one of their clerks. Merchants have to collect in some way, in order to meet their bills and continue business.

This agency is intended to relieve them of this unpleasant and worrying part of their business, and it is my purpose, by thus being of service to them, to make a business for myself out of it by diligently devoting my personal attention to it, and employing whatever help may be necessary. A part of my duty will be to render a monthly report to all the merchants who entrust their business to me, giving them the rating of those whose accounts have been placed in my hands, and that rating will depend upon the treatment my efforts to collect have received from those of whom I have sought to collect.

Also I will try and have ten leading merchants, representing the different lines in the city to make a report to me every quarter, rating those on their books, and from these reports I will prepare a sheet showing the rating that each of these ten merchants gives the different names on their books. This sheet will be furnished for $1.00 to any one who may wish it.

I shall endeavor to conduct this business upon purely business principles.

I shall be faithful and diligent in all matters. Polite and courteous to all with whom I come in contact, hoping thereby to be of service to those whom I represent, win the favor and confidence of all, and achieve success for myself. Respectfully,

Jas. W. Forbis,
Manager.

THE CLOSING EXERCISES

At the Colored A. & M. College in This City Last Night.

The literary program rendered by the students of the A. & M. last night was the closing. The chapel was crowded, a large number of distinguished white citizens were in attendance. Rev. M. M, Jones offered prayer in touching words. The music was superb.

Student J. R. Quick delivered an oration, having for his subject "The Necessity of Instruction in Agriculture," all that can be said of it is that it should be used as agriculture literature. The address of Dr. Mayo was lengthy and instructive, the kind most needed among the young people of the colored race.

The faculty deserves credit for having such an able man to address them. This college is a light house for the colored race, and when its faculty will have signed a diploma for a boy or a girl it will be sufficient proof that either is educated in usefulness and not in dead languages with hands too soft to earn their daily bread.

There is no excuse for so much ignorance among the colored race since the establishment of this school. With all the educational advantages of this race there are but few of its men who can manipulate a banking or collegiate business and be able to architect their own dwelling and have a geographical knowledge of his land.

This college next year will send out men who will be able, mentally to do the above mentioned. Their girls will know right from wrong and how to work and how to manage their domestic affairs so as to satisfy the sanitary officials of their communities. The teachers are consoldated for the right. The president being an honest clear minded man, pledged to duty, thereby treating all students alike. The degree A. M. was not extravagantly conferred upon him by Livingstone college.

SPANISH SCOUT SIGHTED.

Wilmington and Bancroft Chase Her in Vain.

PREPARATIONS FOR INVASION.

The Spanish Spies Arrested—One of Them a Lawyer and Another One a Merchant.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, May 27—The gunboat Wilmington yesterday afternoon sighted a Spanish vessel on a scouting cruise fifteen miles off Sand Key light house. The Spanish vessel was a three masted steamship with a yellow smoke stack and apparently of 4500 tons displacement. The Wilmington vainly pursued the stranger and later met the American boat Bancroft which asked if the gunboat had seen the Spanish vessel which gave chase to the Eagle the other day. While the ships were speaking the Spaniard hove in sight. The Bancroft gave pursuit followed by the Wilmington, who had a short supply of coal on board. The Americans chased the enemy away to the southeast. For three nights a strange vessel has been hovering around Sand Key. In the evening she would make her appearance but would disappear in the morning. She is apparently a speedy craft. The Wilmington reports the blockade quiet.

PROMINENT SPIES ARRESTED.

Key West, May 27—In connection with the arrest of Lieut. Sobral as a spy, two more spies will be arrested in New York and Washington immediately. One is a lawyer and a former employe of the Cuban colonial government, the other is a merchant. They are supposed to be joint at the head of the extensive Spanish secret service system in America. Both are prominent in Washington. The spy sent a daily letter to New York to his accomplice and the latter cabled it in cipher to France, whence it was transmitted to Madrid. He recently paid $750 for a single cablegram to Havana which asked that ten dollars be placed to the credit of one Senorita Maria. It was palpably a blind, the message being a cipher dispatch. Ten soldiers arrived here this morning from Dry Tortugas enroute to fort McPherson. They said that a telegram was received at Tortugas yesterday from Washington announcing that Schley had bottled up Cervera in Satiago de Cuba.

SCHLEY'S MOVEMENTS.

Key West, May 27—Commodore Schley's dispatch boat has just arrived here. The squadron was off Cienfuegos Sunday and five rifle shots were fired from the shore. There were a few small boats in the harbor. The squadron headed for Santiago.

PATRIOTIC QUAKERS.

Philadelphia, May 27—The Universal Peace Union, which is in session in this city, has caused a local war. They have been holding their sessions in old Independence Hall but will probably be bounced from the building today. This action will be taken as a result of their sending a letter of sympathy to Premier Sagasta.

SPANISH SPIES AND CRUISER.

New York, May 27—A special to the Journal from Key West states that three Spanish spies have been found on the government reservation at Key West by a sergeant in the infantry service. The spies shot the sergeant in the arm and succeeded in making their escape.

A special to the Evening Post says a Spanish cruiser was sighted fifteen miles from Key West and was chased away by the gunboat Wilmington and the Bancroft.

THE ARMY OF INVASION.

Tampa, May 27—The formation and drilling and other preparations of the regular and volunteer troops in Florida have been arranged. The general order of yesterday is being executed today. Major General Shafter, of the fifth army corps, will, in all probability, be the first to land in Cuba. The fifth corps will be composed of United States regulars with the exception of the first New York and second Massachusetts. The corps will also embrace the cavalry division composed of first, third, sixth, ninth and tenth regiments under Major General Wheeler and the artillery brigade under Col. Randolph. The seventh corps under Major General Fitzhugh Lee embraces all other volunteers here and at Jacksonville and will be composed of about 8,000 men.

THE CONVENTION.

The question which has engrossed so much attention, has been supreme in North Carolina politics for months, was settled by the democratic convention which met yesterday in a way that left the meaning of the party clear and unequivocal. There was no malice manifest in the action of the convention—what was done was done cleanly, courteously, decorously. The formal proposition of the populist executive committee, on the line laid down by the late populist convention, was submitted to the convention by Chairman Manly. A move was made to table without consideration but it met with no second. The demand of the convention was unanimous that the proposition be read and referred to the committee on platforms and resolutions. The proposition was referred at four o'clock and after considering it until eight the committee submitted the following resolutions:

The committee on platform and resolutions, by direction of the convention, having had under consideration the proposition for fusion made by a committee of the populist party, recommend that this convention adopt the following resolutions in respect thereto:

Resolved, 1. That the proposition for fusion submitted by the populist committee be, and the same is hereby, respectfully declined.

Resolved, 2. That the democratic state executive committee be, and the same is hereby, instructed to entertain no further proposition for fusion.

Resolved, 3. That the secretary of the convention transmit a copy of these resolutions to the chairman of the populist executive committee.

It is seldom that a finer or more representative body of men has been gotten together in the state. The floor of the Academy of Music was crowded with delegates, only a seat here and there being sparsely occupied by the delegation to whom it was assigned. From the galleries and boxes the leaders of the populist and republican parties in the state watched the proceedings with keen interest. Not once during the entire session was there a manifestation of factional strife or animosity. From the first it was apparent that the sentiment of the party was overwhelmingly against fusion on the terms offered by the populist committee.

The first test of the sentiment of the convention came when R. B. Glenn, of Winston, in answer to repeated calls took the platform to address the convention. Mr. Glenn after saying that as yet he did not know how to speak adroitly threw out a feeler to ascertain the sentiment of the body:

"Mr. Glenn said: "I am here to get my orders. If the party says cooperate with some other party, I will do what it says. (Faint yell.) If this convention says the democratic party shall fight its own battles alone against all other parties, then I will be found at my post."

The sentence was scarcely finished before there was a roar of approval from the convention that shook the building to its foundations. Half the delegates in the hall stood on their feet and cheered and cheered again for a straight fight on democratic principles. After that there was no doubt as to results; from such a convention there could be but one answer to the spoils proposition.

When the convention was called to order the entire populist committee, Railroad Commissioner Abbott, Cy Thompson, Hon. Thomas Settle and a host of other political lights were in the galleries. Otho Wilson, late railroad commissioner and middle of the road populist, sat near the platform end of the gallery with his chin resting on the gold head of the cane that he does not carry when visiting his country constituents. It was better than a play to see the smile of satisfaction break slowly over his round and rosy phisiognomy until all the outlying areas wrinkled and radiated with intense joy when the convention cheered Glenn's anti-fusion utterances. The Hon. Thomas Settle also smiled from time to time but decorously always. In surface and intensity that smile of Otho's has not been equalled since the first wag of creation held his sides at his own jokes.

Chairman Manly called the convention to order. In his opening remarks he struck out in one paragraph the whole situation. He said:

We have in North Carolina today three political organizations claiming the privilege of ruling this fair land.

The republican party of 118,000 negroes and 32,000 white men. The populist party having for its constituency about 32,000 white men. The democratic party, composed of 147,000 white men. Which of these parties is entitled to rule; which shall rule is the question. To the democratic party the state looks for succor and aid whatever may be the calamity which demands the patriotism of her sons.

Able and eloquent speeches were made by such men as Col. Julian S. Carr, Dave Covington, C. B. Aycock, B. F. Dixon, Judge Avery, Buck Kitchin, Charles M. Cooke, who was made permanent chairman, and a number of others. Throughout there was a manifestation of goodwill and courtesy among the men holding different views as to the policy of the convention that spoke volumes for the fight that the party will make at the polls this fall.

John Wilson, of Greensboro, extended to the convention a cordial invitation in behalf of the citizens and the city to hold the next convention in Greensboro. The sentiment of the convention was overwhelmingly in favor of the change and had the question been put Greensboro would have been selected with a whoop. The delegates were outspoken in their dissatisfaction with the accommodations offered, the crush at the only hotel at dinner being something terrific and the reward when, by dint of a ticket and much pushing, the hungry delegate got into the dining room was not altogether satisfactory. The delegate did not hesitate to say so. Aycock, of Goldsboro, and Dowd, of Charlotte, for some reason not apparent in the red-faced efforts of the gentlemen, led the fight against moving the convention. Aycock hinted that he had never succeeded in getting a square meal in Greensboro and Dowd doubtless recalled that Joe Caldwell first suggested Greensboro as the next meeting place. In the midst of the serio-comic discussion of the commissary department of the convention, in which the embon point of Messrs. Dowd and Aycock spoke more eloquently than any words could for the soundness of their judgment in those matters, somebody stampeded the convention with a motion to adjourn until eight p. m., when the committee on platforms and resolutions would be ready to report. At the night session the matter was taken up again and the selection of the meeting place left to the executive committee.

In the late populist convention no less a patriot than J. W. Denmark walked up the aisle waving a United States flag and it did not receive a single cheer from the aggregation of patriots. In sharp contrast was the scene in the democratic convention when Dowd, of Charlotte, arose and in a few graceful sentences called the attention of the convention to Maj. B. F. Dixon, who was present in uniform. The applause was deafening. Dowd called for three cheers for Dixon, when the latter had mounted the platform, and they were given with a zest. The The uniform or the flag of the nation was at home in that convention.

Almost an entirely new executive committee was chosen throughout. The committe held a meeting on yesterday evening and decided to postpone the election of the chairman until a later meeting. The men chosen were all sterling democrats and the campaign was entrusted to hands well fitted for directing the great battle for the redemption of the state from the rule of bargainers and incompetents.

Capt. R. Percy Gray, of the Greensboro company, came into the convention, looking every inch the soldier in his regimentals, and sat for a while with the Guilford delegation. Later he chaperoned the delegation out to Camp Dan Russell where Lieutenants Gilmer and Cator were busy teaching the company to "fours right" and "right front into line." The boys drilled well for youngsters—better than any company in the regiment save one, which was a regular military company and had seen much hard service under the critical eye of the camp-frequenting summer maiden.

One of the surprises of the convention, and there were several, was the speech of Buck Kitchin. He had previously come out in favor of fusion in a letter to the press but in the convention he made a ringing speech against the Butler proposition, which was too much for his democracy.

The work of the convention may be summed up as having fixed the democratic party of the state as the one not open to bargaining from any party or faction of a party where principle must be sacrificed for pie. It proved anew its right to the proud title of the one party in the state that is wise enough and pure enough to give the state good, clean, honest government; as the party that comprises within its ranks a large majority of the men who give weight, worth and dignity to a state. That was not a bad day's work—for democracy nor for North Carolina. C. P. S.

So Tired! So Tired!
Chronic Dyspepsia!

For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any oatural sleep, I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought ½ dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

Response Should Be Prompt.

The response to the call for seventy-five thousand more volunteers should be as prompt as was the response to the call for the one hundred and twenty-five thousand. This call is not to be looked upon as an indication that the victory will not be as easy was at first supposed, but the provision of an extra force will make victory more certain in the eyes of the enemy. Being thoroughly prepared and equipped will bring a more rapid close to hostilities.

General News in a Nutshell.

The women of Boston have asked the municipal authorities to modify the law against wearing hats in the theatres. They propose a small, low hat, with no projections, and have submitted models to the City Council.

When Evangelist Martin opened his meetings at Meade, Kan., the other day, he said: "I have come here to knock the devil out of your sinful town." According to the local paper an old deacon sitting well to the front was heard to mutter: "If preachers can talk that way, I guess I am justified in hoping that Sampson will knock h—l out of Havana!"

The Doniphan County, (Kan.) Times wants to know whether we are a nation of worms or of men. "We certainly are not a nation of worms," replies the Kansas City Journal: "any man who has broken his back digging for worms could tell you that."

"Of the 18,000,000 people in Spain," says the New York Tribune, "about 12,000,000 cannot read or write, 8,700,000 have no visible means of support, and more than 91,000 are professional beggars. That is not a good showing, and it gives color to Lord Salisbury's trenchant remark about "dying nations."

At the time of Switzerland's latest census the population of that country included 21,727 commercial travelers. Of this number 16,743 represented Swiss firms; 3257 represented German firms; 1121, French; 282, Italian; 163; Austro Hungarian; 52, English; 46, Belgian; 19, Spanish, and 11, Dutch.

This year's electoral campaign in Japan was not as spirited as have been those of former years. The Japanese minister for Home Affairs has reported that in the whole country only twenty-six people were killed and twenty-nine wounded during the balloting, against 210 killed and 300 wounded in 1892.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits.' Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

From the County Jail.

The following letter written by some one in the county jail has just been handed to the Telegram and we print it verbatim:

Special to the Telegram.
Saturday, May 21st 1898.

Hot times in the county jail. A general row takoned place between five negros, a negro sport B. L. Logan from Asheville, a bell boy at the Battry Park hotel has been in jail for the past seven weeks and had not takoned a bath. Three of the negros concidering deasency necessary held him down while Moroe Johnson takoned a bar of soap and a toe sack and scrubed him sufficiently.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Poor Accommodations.

There were loud and just complaints among the delegates returning from the state democratic convention this morning. There was only a car and a half for the accommodation of the delegates and regular passengers and at least a third of the delegates were compelled to stand up all the way from Raleigh. For such gross disregard of the comfort of passengers there is no excuse on the part of the Southern or any other railway.

To Washington.

Now that the schools are over, it will be nice as a matter of pleasure and education as well, to take trip to Washington. To see the library building, which cost seven millions of dollars, alone is worth the price of a trip to the capital.

Something to Know.

Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aidsdigestion, and is pronounced byt those who have tried it as the very bes blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it· Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C, E. Holton's drug store.
